8	While it is a family story that a Jim, John, and a Benjamin were brothers the spread in ages
9	of the above and the only Benjamin I've located so far (born 1847) seems too wide. Benjamin
10	1847 seems to be the son of James above. He, Benjamin born 1847, was a doctor.

Hamrick Family

Dear Jean

Here is a copy of the family chart done in 1946 by Thomas Tryxton Hamrick (b 1917). I'm told he is still living but doesn't do genealogy any more.

He has Carolina as a Brunner not a Bonner (Cynthia Caroline b 7-23-1832 A.L. m ① John Hamrick/Hambreck ② W.I. Rogers

He called Elizabeth Waller wife of Drew Douglass "Betty".

He says Judy Douglass married 1st a Charlie Smith but you have Samuel Smith, (Charlie is Jacky's 1st son's name.)

Kathryn Stephenson of Wayne Co. struck the original chart and sent me a copy. Unfortunately there are places on it that are now hard to read.

Sincerely
Marjorie

The envelope is one of my father's I'm using up. The Scottish in me dislikes waste. My father was secretary of the Ohio District of Kiwanis International.

FACES OF THE COAST

Christy Pritchett/The Mississippi Press

Kathy Hamrick

As district administrator for the Jackson County Soil and Water Conservation District, Kathy Hamrick does her part to save the environment. Hamrick has a wide varieties of duties in her job and that is what she enjoys about it. She keeps a pair of work boots with her all the time because she never knows what her day may entail. Applying for grant money, working with home and land owners, working with cities and the county to carry out programs, implementing new programs for the community and conservation education are just a few of the things that keep Hamrick busy. Hamrick works with area teachers to develop programs and provide classes with an informative, hands on experience. Teaching children about litter is one of the ways she informs children about the environment. Hamrick also educates the community as well. Hamrick, a life-long resident of Wade and mother of two, enjoys spending time with her grandson and working in her yard.
